

Verse 1

Now i don't answer your calls
Now you don't tell me when I'm wrong
Now that you're gone i moved on x2

Verse 2

So let me move on from the past
Don't get stuck when you're stabbed in the back Open your eyes, you can see
Don't need to get played like a beat

Pre chorus

Oh You told me
Eternally
We'd be together, the whole way

Oh can't you see
You forgot about me
broke me into pieces, the hard way

Chorus

You hold on, I let go
I'm better now, you're on your own
The years went by, and i let go
You need to know
I'm better without you

Verse 3

don't need to pour it out to you
We're looking through different views
I don't need to be so discreet
I laid it all out at your feet

Verse 4

I know that I'm better without you but i don't regret being with you
You hurt me so bad i don't miss you
You tried to treat me like the issue
But sometimes I can't help but miss you
