

Verse 1

I love the way you're different
And I love the way you talk
You Have you have your own ideas
You think your own thoughts

Verse 2

Don't let them make you feel useless
Don't let them get you so blue
Even with your glasses on no one looks better than you

Chorus

I can see the real you
From the Inside out
You can't hide the real you
Just let it out
No one knows the real you
From the inside out
But I can feel your soul glow
Just let it out

Verse 3

You say sometimes you're off balance
And you might be crazy it's true
But don't you regret being different
That's what I like about you

Verse 4

I know sometimes it's gets so lonely
Feels like the whole world is laughing at you
But I can see the spark in your eyes
And I can find a way to make you smile
Cause I know that one day everything is gonna be alright
